

Total Safety Recognized as Operational Consultancy of the Year by Oil & Gas Awards

HOUSTON, TX, November 5, 2013 -- Total Safety has been recognized as the Operational Consultancy of the Year by the Oil & Gas Awards. The award demonstrates and celebrates advances made in key areas of environmental stewardship, efficiency, innovation, corporate social responsibility, health and safety. Total Safety recently achieved two million non-recordable hours in its Fire Services team and one million in its European division. These efforts help define and support Total Safety's commitment to a strong safety culture.

In addition, the company has VPP-Star status at seven locations, with twenty-eight additional locations in the process of preparing for VPP Star status. VPP sites evolve into models of excellence and influence practices industry-wide. VPP is an OSHA-sponsored volunteer program, promoting effective worksite-based safety and health.

The Oil & Gas Awards recognize outstanding achievement made within the upstream and midstream sectors of the oil gas industry. They are nominated and judged by a panel of oilfield service employees, community stakeholders, independent experts, and respected industry veterans.
