

JAY NADLER JOINS WARBURG PINCUS AS EXECUTIVE-IN-RESIDENCE WILL FOCUS ON OPPORTUNITIES IN INFORMATION SERVICES, SOFTWARE AND TECHNOLOGY-ENABLED SERVICES

New York, March 30, 2016 – Warburg Pincus, a leading global private equity firm focused on growth investing, today announced the appointment of Jay Nadler as an executive-in-residence in its Technology, Media and Telecommunications (“TMT”) and Industrials and Business Services (“IBS”) Groups. In this role, Mr. Nadler will work with Warburg Pincus to explore investment opportunities in information services, software and technology-enabled services.

Mr. Nadler has 30 years of experience in the broader technology services sector, including serving in senior executive roles for three Warburg Pincus portfolio companies. He most recently served as Chief Operating Officer of Interactive Data Corporation (“IDC”), a financial market data provider. While at IDC, Mr. Nadler led the successful transformation of the company and accelerated growth through the sale to Intercontinental Exchange. Prior to IDC, Mr. Nadler served as President of MLM Information Services (“MLM”), a provider to the corporate tax market created from several acquisitions. He previously served in various senior executive roles at Information Holdings Inc., a vendor to the intellectual property and life sciences markets acquired by Thomson Reuters.

“Jay has a proven track record leading and successfully growing businesses,” said Chandler Joel Reedy, Managing Director, Warburg Pincus. “We have known Jay for over 15 years and are pleased to welcome him as an executive-in-residence. Jay will be a valuable asset to the firm in the increasingly important areas of information services, software and technology-enabled services.”

Mr. Nadler commented, “I share Warburg Pincus’ commitment to partnership with management and focus on building durable businesses. After working with the TMT team for many years in my prior roles, I look forward to this new opportunity as an executive-in-residence to leverage my experience and sector knowledge as we pursue new investment opportunities.”

Mr. Nadler holds a B.S. Degree in Economics from The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania.
